

PUTNEY PLACER NOW FINANCED SECURE POWER

Contract Awarded for Building
Two and One-Half Miles of Electric Power Line

The Putney placer properties have closed contracts and deposited the cost of a little over two and a quarter miles of power line with the Nevada-California Power company to connect their properties in lower Manhattan gulch with the Manhattan-Round Mountain power line. The Wittenberg Warehouse and Transfer company will start hauling poles and other materials at once, and it is expected that the line will be completed in three weeks.

The property has been extensively developed, exposing rich gravel, and only awaits the connection with the power line. Mr. Putney states he expects to have the property in operation by Nov. 1, with a fair-sized force of men, and will continue operations permanently, as it is not expected that the winter weather will interfere with development and production of gold.

OPERATIONS ON PIOCHE GROUP TO START SOON

Prince Consolidated Company is Making Arrangements to Unwater Workings

Murray Godbe, general manager of the Prince Consolidated Mining and Smelting company, was in Pioche the early part of the week making arrangements to resume operations at the mine, all arrangements having been made to install the machinery for the unwatering of the mine to the 800-foot level. The work of installing the pumping machinery will be under the supervision of Frank Evans, an experienced boiler man who has had wide experience in handling pumping plants for the handling of large flows of water in deep mines.

The first work will be to rebuild the present boilers, which are in good condition. The old fire bricks were not what had been represented to the company and will be replaced by the best fire brick on the market, which will give the boilers ample protection. In addition a new boiler will be added, which is now on the way, that will bring the boiler capacity up to 750 horsepower.

In the unwatering the present pumps will be used in connection with a tank on the hoist of 100 gallons capacity, which will give a pumping capacity of about 500 gallons per minute, with which to reach the 800-foot level, when a new pump of 800 gallons capacity will be installed in the sump that will be prepared for the purpose of handling the surplus water of the mine.

Manager Godbe estimates that it will require at least 30 days to get in operation. As many men as possible will be employed as fast as the work of installation progresses. All effort will be made to put the mine on a shipping basis as quickly as possible.

The boiler and pump is on the way, having been shipped some time ago, and is expected to arrive at any time. This is indeed good news to the camp, as the Price Consolidated mine has been one of the most important shippers in the district for many years and the payroll has been an important item to the merchants of Pioche, and the resumption of operations at this time will surely add new life to the camp.

OPERATIONS TO BE RESUMED AT THE GOLD BELT

Financial End of Proposition Is Provided for, According To Reports

Within the next few days an active campaign of development will be inaugurated at the Gold Belt Divide property under the direction of Charles Anderson, one of the best known miners in southern Nevada. Mr. Anderson will proceed with the installation of a complete plant of machinery, advices having been received from Charles Keilhofer, who is at present in Los Angeles, that the financial end of the proposition is to be provided for in a liberal manner.

The shaft at the Gold Belt property, which is three-compartment, has been sunk to a depth of 63 feet, and a most remarkable ore showing is in evidence. From the very inception of work ore carrying values of from $20 to $54 a ton has been followed, and it has been proven to have a width of 10 feet, with neither wall being in evidence. This vein on the surface has a width of from 35 to 50 feet, and pinnings of gold can be secured from any spot along the course of the ledge for a length of nearly 1500 feet. Mining men agree that there is in the building a coming heavy producer, and all that is needed to bring about the desired results seems to be the sinking of the shaft and the extension of drifts to permit of the ore being economically mined. No doubt a modern milling plant will be constructed in due course of events and the ore reduced at the seat of operations.

NO MORE COMMISSIONS ON FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE

MANILA, Oct. 4.—Opposition to sending any more special commissions to Washington to work for Philippine independence on the ground that they were too costly and accomplished nothing, was the sense of a resolution adopted by the national convention of the democratic party.
